

Publication scheme

Freedom of Information Act 2000

This publication scheme follows the model prepared and approved by the Information Commissioner. The publication scheme is made available to the public on the following terms:

To produce and publish the methods by which the specific information is made routinely available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public.

To review and update on a regular basis the information the authority makes available under this scheme.

To produce a schedule of any fees charged for access to information which is made proactively available.

To make this publication scheme available to the public.

To publish any dataset held by the authority that has been requested, and any updated versions it holds, unless the authority is satisfied that it is not appropriate to do so; to publish the dataset, where reasonably practicable, in an electronic form that is capable of re-use; and, if any information in the dataset is a relevant copyright work and the public authority is the only owner, to make the information available for re-use under the terms of the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015, if they apply, and otherwise under the terms of section 19, Freedom of Information Act 2000 ('the Act'). The term 'dataset' is defined in section 11(5) of the Act. The term 'relevant copyright work' is defined in section 19(8) of that Act.
